History created in Mysuru as

Droupadi Murmu becomes first President to open Dasara

"Mysuru Dasara is a proud symbol of India's cultural heritage"

Mysuru, Sept. 26 (RK&BCT)- History was created in Mysuru atop Chamundi Hill this morning as President of India Droupadi Murmu inaugurated the Dasara-2022 by showering flower petals on the decked-up idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari placed on a silver chariot. She became the first President to declare open the grand 10-day festivities.

In the past, the Presidents and Vice-Presidents have inaugurated the Jumboo Savari. Today's Mysuru visit created another history as it was Droupadi Murmu's first State visit after assuming the Office of India's First Citizen. Her flight directly landed at the Mysore Airport from New Delhi. Though the VVIP visit was for over two hours only, it became significant considering the firsts achieved by it.

Stringent protocol

The inauguration time was specified between 9.45 am and 10.05 am in the Vruschika Lagna. However, the inauguration took place three minutes later due to the stringent protocols to be followed and also the tight security accorded to the country's First Citizen by the President's Body Guards (PBG). Before the inauguration, the President visited the sanctum sanctorum of the Chamundeshwari Temple and offered her prayers.

Others seen are Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot, Union Ministers Pralhad Joshi and Shobha Karandlaje, District Minister S.T. Somashekar, Kannada and Culture Minister V. Sunil Kumar and Sri Chamundeshwari Temple Chief Priest Dr. N. Shashishekar Dixit. [Pic. by M.N. Lakshminarayana Yadav]

As per the protocol, the President arrived on the stage last, after all the other dignitaries were seated. Before the President's arrival, an officer-in-charge of security walked onto the stage and sought information from the event managers about the number of people on the dais. He examined the silver chariot where the idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari was placed and even examined the lamp that will be lit by the President as part of the inauguration.

Ascending the stage, the President directly walked to her chair and greeted the audience with folded hands as a bodyguard stood behind her with full alertness.

Mysuru, Sept. 26 (BCT)- Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai visited Sri Ramakrishna Ashram in Yadavagiri last evening and took the blessings of Swami Muktidanandaji, President of the Ashram. This was his first ever visit to the spiritual abode and was accorded a ceremonial and warm welcome.

The Chief Minister visited the shrine and offered his prayers and spent some moments of silence there. Later, he met with Swamijis and interacted with them. Swami Muktidanandaji felicitated the CM and presented him with some books and a portrait of Swami Vivekananda.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

With time, life has changed dramatically. Today, companies spend mind-boggling sums of money to install a 'Customer Relationship Software'; spend hours of precious time entering all relevant data about their customers; sit and stare at the computer screen instead of talking to the same people sitting right before us, in flesh and blood. A colleague shared his experience as a branch manager in a bank soon after the customisation of the 'Customer Relationship Module' in his bank.

One morning, a well-dressed young man approached the staff at the 'May I Help You' desk and sought contact details of the banking ombudsman. The staff member promptly directed him to the branch manager. The customer who thundered into my colleague's cabin appeared visibly annoyed. "You sent this greeting card?" he queried.

"Yes sir, we are greeting all our customers on important occasions like their birthdays, anniversaries, etc. Hope you liked it?" my colleague asked, excitement writ large on his face.

"Liking what? Ridiculous, what sort of a database do you have? I have just stepped out of college and on the look-out for a job and you are wishing me a 'happy and peaceful retired life.'

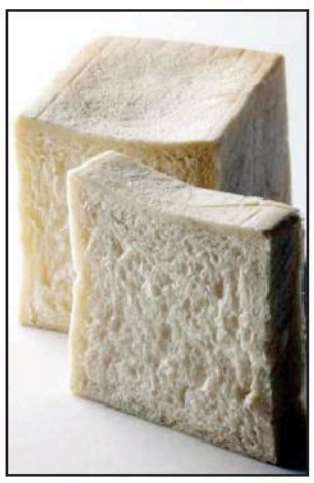
This little bird is a real-life vampire

Darwin and Wolf Islands: Geospiza difficilis septentrionalis, aka the Vampire Finch, is a small bird with a very unusual diet – other bird's blood. Found on only two small islands in the Galapagos Archipelago – Darwin and Wolf – the vampire finch is a sub-species of the sharp-beaked ground finch, a relatively small and harmless-looking bird. However, as the specie's name suggests, it has a very sharp beak, which it sometimes uses to break through more than just fruits and nuts. The vampire finch got its name from its bizarre habit of pecking at larger birds' skin and feeding on their blood whenever other food sources are scarce.

Although no one knows exactly how the vampire finch developed a taste for blood, it is believed that, through the ages, it occasionally pecked too hard at the skin of seabirds while feeding on their parasites and over time adapted to consuming blood as a dietary supplement.

Bread with white crust to decrease food waste



Tokyo: A Japanese company recently released a white crust milk bread that it hopes will curb the practice of removing the crust when making sandwiches.

Majority of milk bread sandwiches made daily in Japan have their crusts removed. While crusted sandwiches do exist, the general perception is that the fluffy, white part of Japanese shokupan milk bread is tastier than the brown crust. The crust is nice and soft, but people still seem to prefer crusted sandwiches. That results in a lot of food waste, but one company changed that with an innovative white crust shokupan bread.

REALLY...?

- One account of the origin of the word "watch" suggests that it came from the Old English word woecce which meant "watchman", because town watchmen used watches to keep track of their shifts. Another theory surmises that the term came from 17th-century sailors, who used the new mechanisms to time the length of their shipboard watches.
- The concept of the wristwatch goes back to the production of the very earliest watches in the 16th century. Some people say the world's first wristwatch was created by Abraham-Louis Breguet for Caroline Murat, Queen of Naples, in 1810. By mid 19th century, most watchmakers produced a range of wristwatches, often marketed as bracelets, for women.

VOICE OF THE READER

Is Manuvana Park in Chamarajapuram a dump yard?

Sir,

I am a regular walker at Manuvana Park in Chamarajapuram (opposite to Law Courts). Most of the time I have been watching people eating comestibles inside the park and throw the papers and covers all over.

Even I have seen tea cups strewn all over in the park. Though dustbins are kept at some points in the park, most of the time they are full and not being cleared regularly.

Especially at a time when Dasara is here and many tourists not only from other States but also from other countries as well are visiting our city which is known for its cleanliness, I appeal to the authorities concerned in the City Corporation to prohibit eating or drinking inside the parks.

6,000 houses sanctioned for the shelterless in KR Constituency: Minister

Mysuru, Sept. 26 (MTY&DM)- PWD Minister C.C. Patil said that the Union Government has sanctioned 6,000 houses for the shelterless in KR Constituency of the city.

He was speaking after taking part on the eighth day of the nine-day 'Modi Yug Utsav-2022' event organised by KR MLA S.A. Ramdas at Ramalingeshwara Park in Vidyaranyapuram here on Saturday.

Noting that Ramdas has planned to make KR Constituency as shelterless people-free in one year, Patil said that the MLA had strived hard to get 6,000 houses sanctioned by the Union Government for his Constituency.

Contending that perhaps Ramdas is the only MLA in the State who has been successful in getting such a big number of houses sanctioned by the Centre, the Minister said that the country has become stronger and secure under the leadership of Modi.

The PWD Department will execute all works coming under its purview in KR Constituency and Mysuru district for which Rs. 278 crore has been released, he added.

MLA Ramdas said that he has been working overtime to ensure that the benefits and facilities under various schemes of the Union and State Governments reach the door step of targeted beneficiaries without any hurdles.

Minister C.C. Patil and MLA Ramdas performing guddali puja for the asphalting works of Narasaraja Road using cluster plastics from the District Courts complex to Ballal Circle as others look on.

Pointing out that various road works worth Rs. 50 crore is currently going on in KR Constituency, Ramdas said that plastic wastes is being converted into cluster plastics at Bengaluru, which will be used for asphalting Narasaraja Road that runs from the District Courts complex to Ashoka Circle (Ballal Circle), at a cost of Rs. 4 crore. This will be first road in the State where cluster plastics is used, he added.

Minister Patil distributed various benefits and facilities to targeted beneficiaries of KR Constituency on the occasion.

KR BJP Office-bearers Vadivelu, Nagendra and Om Srinivas, District Employment Exchange Assistant Director D.N. Rani, MCC Additional Commissioner M.J. Roopa, PWD Officials Ganesh Bhovi, Raju and Krishnaiah, Executive Engineer Harish, Ashraya Samiti members and others were present.

Forest Watcher goes missing under mysterious circumstances while on duty

Madikeri, Sept. 26- A Forest Water on duty has gone missing under mysterious circumstances from Makuta Forest limits in Virajpet taluk.

Pavan

The missing Forest Watcher is 23-year-old Pavan, a native of Balele and it is suspected that he may have slipped and fell into the river. A search operation is on to trace the body.

Details: Pavan and four others were deployed for a wild elephant combing operation at V. Badaga village in Makuta Reserve Forest area on Sept. 23 during which Pavan is said to have gone missing suddenly.

Though Forest Department staff, Police and Fire Brigade personnel, Bittangala Gram Panchayat members and localites conducted a search till night, Pavan was not traceable and it is suspected that he may have slipped and fell into the River flowing next to the forest.

On Sept. 23 late night, a team from National Disaster Response Force (NDRF) was summoned and a search operation was conducted inside the forest but in vain. On Sept. 24, a search was conducted in the river at Neerugundi area in V. Badaga Forest limits till evening but Pavan could not be traced.

The search operation to trace Pavan is still going on and NDRF, Fire Brigade and Police personnel have stayed put in the area and are continuing their search. Meanwhile, the information of Pavan going missing was told to his family members on Sept. 23 night by the Forest officials.

The family members requested the Forest officials to allow them inside the Forest area, but as Makuta Forest area is thick, Forest officials convinced Pavan's family members not to venture inside the forest and a search operation is continuing.

Plea to establish Haradasa Appacha Kavi Study Chair in Mysore University

Mysuru, Sept. 26 (PM&DM)- Maintaining that Haradasa Appacha Kavi was a great Kodava poet and Philosopher who followed 'Dasa Parampare', Rangayana Director Addanda C. Cariappa said that the Kodava community should press the Government for the establishment of Appacha Kavi Study Chair in University of Mysore.

He was speaking at Appacha Kavi birth anniversary celebrations organised by Mysuru Kodava Samaja at Field Marshal K.M. Cariappa Community Hall in Vijayanagar here recently.

Asserting that Appacha Kavi's poems, plays and other writings were worth a study by the Kannada literary world, Cariappa argued that the Study Chair will largely help in carrying forward the rich legacy left behind by the great poet, to future generations. Kodava Samaja should exert pressure on the Government for the setting up of the chair, he added.

Haradasa Appacha Kavi

Continuing, Cariappa said no one should forget that Appacha Kavi was the first Indian playwright to adapt the mythological Yayathi story into a popular play. Appacha Kavi, who studied only till fourth standard, became a Sanskrit scholar and wrote exemplary plays. Through his memorable and magnificent writings, he came to be known as Kalidasa of Kodagu, he observed.

Stating that Appacha Kavi, who was born on Sept.21, 1868, was known as a Poet-Saint, he regretted that it is unfortunate that the Kannada literary world is yet to accept him and there are also no serious discussions on his plays, poems and other works. This may be because that most of his works are in Kodava language, he opined.

Celebrating the great poet's birth anniversary as 'Kodava Sahitya Day' is just not enough and it should be celebrated in a more purposeful manner to attract the attention of the entire State, he added.

Artist Nellamakkada B. Kaverappa, who is also the Founder-President of city's Bharani Art Gallery, spoke on the life and works of Appacha Kavi.

Mysuru Kodava Samaja President Mechanda Shashi Ponnappa welcomed. Kodava Samaja Cultural and Sports Club President Kuttimada D. Muthappa and others were present.

Yaduveer ascends Golden Throne

Mysuru, Sept. 26 (MTY&BNR)- Navarathri rituals kickstarted at Mysore Palace with Khas Durbar (Private Durbar) today during which titular head of Mysore Royal Family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar ascended the Golden Throne at Durbar Hall.

Prior to this, rituals began at Durbar Hall and Private Residence early in the morning at 5.30 am with oil bath to Yaduveer. The Lion's head to the Golden Throne was fixed between 6.15 am and 6.30 am.

Kankana was tied to Yaduveer between 9.45 am and 10.05 am at Chamundi Thotti. Later, kankana was also tied to Trishika Kumari Wadiyar at Vani Vilas Puja Hall at the Palace.

The rituals continued with Pattada Aane (Royal elephant), Pattada Kudure (Royal horse), Pattada Hasu (Royal cow) and Pattada Onte (Royal camel) being brought to the Palace along with a group of married women (Sumangalis) carrying Kalashas from Kodi Someshwara Temple and Kodi Kalabhairaveshwara Temple at 10.45 am. Then they were taken to Savara Thotti where puja was performed to Yaduveer and Pattada Aane, Kudure, Hasu and Onte blessed him. After seeking their blessings, Yaduveer arrived at the Durbar Hall and performed kalasa puja and puja to the Golden Throne before ascending it between 12.15 pm and 12.25 pm. While Yaduveer walked through the Durbar Hall, the durbaris chanted Bahu Parak to inform about the arrival of the Maharaja.

Soon after Yaduveer ascended the throne, priests from 23 temples including Chamundeshwari Temple atop Chamundi Hill, Sri Ranganathaswamy Temple in Srirangapatna, Cheluvarayaswamy Temple in Melukote, Nanjundeshwara Temple in Nanjangud and the temples inside the Palace like Ganapathy Temple, Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple, Prasanna Krishna Temple, Trineshwara Temple, Bhuvaneshwari Temple, offered Prasada and Proksha (sprinkling of holy water) to Yaduveer.

Murmu begins her speech in Kannada

Mysuru, Sept. 26 (RK&BCT)- "Devi Chamundeshwarige nanna namaskaaragalu. Yella sodara sodariyarige nanna namaskaaragalu..." (I bow to Goddess Chamundeshwari. My respects to all brothers and sisters.)

President Droupadi Murmu thus began her speech in Kannada amidst thundering applause from the audience. She effortlessly chanted a Sanskrit Mantra that was dedicated to Goddess Chamundeshwari. All through her address, the President focussed on women's empowerment and also how Mysuru Dasara is a proud symbol of India's rich cultural heritage.

Mentioning the name of Aadi Shankaracharya who established Sringeri Mutt in Karnataka, Murmu traced Karnataka's spiritual journey and how the State was associated with India's spiritual, cultural and religious identities. "Reformers like Allama Prabhu, Jagajyothi Basavanna, Akkamahadevi and concepts like Anubhava Mantapa brought in a revolution in religion where there was a pride of place for democratic values and women empowerment," she noted.

"The Vachanas are hundreds of years old but are still relevant now. A woman is a symbol of sacrifice and motherhood but at the same time, she can be a Chamundi or Durga when it comes to the destruction of evil and establishing Dharma. From Goddess Parvathi, Chamundi and Durga, we have seen how Rani Abbakka, Kittur Rani Chennamma and Onake Obavva have protected the country from evil forces," the President said.

Expressing happiness over the progress of Karnataka on all fronts like education, investment, connectivity, start-up hubs, jobs and technology creation, the President lauded the efforts of Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and his cabinet colleagues in ensuring the overall development of Karnataka.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai also spoke. MP Pratap Simha, MLAs S.A. Ramdas, L. Nagendra, Tanveer Sait, B. Harshavardhan, MLC A.H. Vishwanath, Mayor Shivakumar, Deputy Mayor Dr. G. Roopa, DG&IGP Praveen Sood, City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta, Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham, MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy, Chairmen of various Boards and Corporations, people's representatives and others were present .

President Droupadi Murmu's Mysuru Dasara inauguration visit had a family touch as she was accompanied by her daughter Itishree Murmu (extreme left), a banker by profession. Itishree is married to Ganesh Hembram, who is a rugby player. Itishree visited Sri Chamundeshwari Temple along with her mother and offered prayers. Itishree, however, was not present on stage. Union Minister Shobha Karndlaje, Minister S.T. Somashekar and MLA G.T. Devegowda are also seen.

Forest dwellers meet India's First Citizen

Mysuru, Sept. 26 (RK&BCT)- After the Dasara inauguration, a group of tribal dancers from Hunsur, Periyapatna and H.D. Kote presented traditional dances to President Droupadi Murmu. They were all dressed in their traditional attire and it was a memorable moment for them.

Later, a group of 14 tribal representatives met the President and interacted with her about the living conditions and the hardships they face in the jungles. The tribals have an emotional connect with the President who is the first person from the tribal community to occupy the highest office in India.

After the meeting, the tribals said that it was a moment of pride and a memorable time spent with the President. They thanked the District Administration for providing them with the opportunity to interact with the VVIP.

Earlier after Murmu inaugurated the Dasara, a silver idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari seated in a mantap was presented to her as a memento on behalf of the State Government along with a Mysore Peta and a garland.

While the President was quick to remove the garland and hand it over to her guards, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai goaded her to retain the Mysore Peta as it is the tradition of the land.

The President, however, removed the turban as she was feeling awkward wearing it throughout the programme. Mementoes (silver elephant) were also presented to the Chief Minister and Union Ministers.

The National Anthem (by the Police Band) and the Naadageethe were played. Later, the President walked toward the silver chariot and performed the inauguration rituals.

Mahishasuramardini Alankara

The Goddess was decorated in the form of Mahishasuramardini and a green saree was draped on her. A mangalasutra and gold jewellery were put on the Goddess.

Accompanying the President were Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, Union Ministers Pralhad Joshi and Shobha Karandlaje, Kannada and Culture Minister V. Sunil Kumar and District Minister S.T. Somashekar.

As the President lit the ceremonial lamp, the mantras were chanted by Chief Priest of the Temple Dr. Shashishekar Dixit. The Chief Priest later offered flower petals to the guests to shower on the Goddess. After the inauguration, the President obliged to a team of photographers and posed for a photograph with the guests.

Though Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Devegowda was to preside over the event, he had to be seated in the front row due to protocol restrictions. Even Mayor Shivakumar, Mysuru's First Citizen, did not get a chance to be with the President on stage.

The President's Office had fixed the number of people on the stage at 13 and the number was reduced to seven later. As such, many dignitaries had to be seated off the stage.

Red carpet was rolled from the President's cavalcade parking venue to the Temple premises and the President walked in a brisk pace with her bodyguards running ahead of her. The Hill Temple was closed for public and it was opened only after the President and other guests left the Hill.

Illumination mars beauty of heritage Crawford Hall

Mysuru, Sept. 26 (OSR)- At night if you go for a drive in front of the University Crawford Hall, you would be wondering where Crawford Hall has gone. Has it disappeared altogether? You could see only colourful serial lights hanging from a height. Reason: The historic building has been illuminated partially, just for the heck of doing it.

Almost all the buildings in Mysuru, especially the ones known for heritage value and cultural significance, are decked up like a bride. Along with the illumination of the buildings, over 120 km of city radius too has been lit up.

But only the University authorities should explain why the illumination of Crawford Hall has not been done properly. The public has expressed displeasure over the historic heritage building not being illuminated at an optimal level.

"Why illuminate a heritage building like this? This is the best example of how not to illuminate a beautiful building. The architecture of the building is unique and its colour too is impressive and suits all the colours of illumination. Still, no one has cared to light this building in a proper way," said a commuter who was walking past the road last evening.

This, however, was not the scenario in the previous years.

Earlier, the Crawford Hall would be tastefully decorated and illuminated and it used to compete with other structures and people, especially those who have been educated from the University of Mysore, would come from far and wide to see the illumination, said people who have seen the illumination in the past.

People have alleged that the illumination contract of Crawford Hall has been given to a contractor who does not have a basic knowledge of illumination and architecture. "This looks like the illumination at a village fair, without any sense of beauty and orderliness. The VC and the Registrar must intervene and must restore the beauty of the illuminated building. The authorities are not aware of how the beauty of the heritage structure has been marred," said another commuter.

CM Bommai was shown the model of Swami Vivekananda Memorial Cultural Youth Centre (Viveka Smaraka) and an impressed CM appreciated the good work by the Ashram. The Swamiji explained the basic structure of the Viveka Smaraka and also outlined the year-round projects of youth development, personality development and empowerment that will be undertaken once the Memorial is ready.

Swami Muktidanandaji of Sri Ramakrishna Ashram explaining about Viveka Memorial project to CM Basavaraj Bommai last evening.

Sharing the moments of the CM's visit, Swami Muktidanandaji told Star of Mysore this morning that it was a courtesy call and they were elated by the CM's visit. Though it was a hurried visit, the moments were worth it, he said.

"We have been inviting the CM to the Ashram for a long time and he has been citing paucity of time. Yesterday, we suddenly got a call at around 5.30 pm informing us that the CM will visit at around 7 pm," he said.

"This was the CM's first-ever visit and the CM told me that he has read about Swami Vivekananda, Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa and their ideals for a strong and spiritually-oriented society. The CM is knowledgeable about the philosophy of life and death and he discussed various aspects of life including life as a great teacher and death as a great leveller," the Swamiji said.

The CM has been influenced by the teachings of Swami Vivekananda and his mother was a great influencer who handed the books of Swami Vivekananda for Bommai to read when he was in eighth standard.

"CM Bommai spoke about universal brotherhood that Swami Vivekananda advocated and also how the great philosopher's teachings can be applied to the economics of the State. He spoke at length about how the State's economy must be based on ethics and how spirituality can help in ensuring the welfare of the people," the Swamiji said.

The CM asked Ramakrishna Ashram to continue the good work for society.

"The CM told us that in every society, there will be good forces and also evil forces. Both will fight with each other at their own levels and ultimately, the good and truthful forces will win and Dharma will be established. The CM explained to us how the Government is opening Viveka Hostels all over Karnataka to educate the poor and marginalised children and also give them spiritual-oriented education. These hostels have aptly been named Viveka Hostel after Swami Vivekananda," he said.

Minister S.T. Somashekar, MP Pratap Simha, UoM VC Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar, former MLC D. Madegowda and others accompanied the CM.
